

rag weed; and that dorn is going to be virtually impossible to buy this winter, makes this endlessness seem important. Rag weed equals hay-fever.

Our tomatoes and sweet corn are now being sent to the kitchen, a second planting of turnips has taken the place of five rows of carrots which have been pulled up for canning and storing.

GUEST LIST:

Devora Denenholz, a secretary for the New Republic magazine from New York City.

Miss Radiana Pazmore, singer, from Converse College in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Mr Vitello, a member of the staff of the Museum of Modern Art.

ARRIVALS

Work Camper:

Irene Lott from East Orange, New Jersey

Eugene O'Brien from Newark, New Jersey

Helen Wright, 1942-43 student, who has returned after several weeks vacation in New England.

IN TODAY'S MAIL

New Addresses:

Pfc Richard D Brown, 14101337
809 Tech Sch Sqd
Bks 431
Sioux Falls, South Dakota

NEWS

Marian Sands is now Mrs Israel Sweet. She was married in Columbus, Georgia and is now living at 1011 Carroll Place, Bronx 56, New York City.